Shopping for Mum's Birthday

Daisy and Ben were looking at the calendar at home. They wanted to buy mum a birthday present. "It is mum's birthday today. What should we buy for her?" asked Daisy. "Let's buy a dress for her," said Ben.

Daisy and Ben went shopping in the shopping centre. They went to a clothes shop. They wanted to buy a dress for their mum. Ben asked, "How much is this dress?" "It's seventy dollars," the shopkeeper answered. They only had fifty dollars. They were unhappy.

"We cannot buy this dress," said Daisy. "Let's buy a cake instead of a dress." "Good idea, Daisy!" said Ben. "Let's go to the bakery." They went to the bakery and bought a birthday cake. Then they went home.

"Surprise!" They said. "Happy birthday, mum." She kissed the children. "Oh, thank you, my sweethearts!" she smiled happily.
