

Shopping for Mum's birthday

Today is the 10th of May. Ann and Tom look at the calendar. Ann asks, 'When is Mum's birthday?' Tom says happily, 'Today is Mum's birthday. Let's go to a shopping mall to buy a dress for her.' Ann says, 'Shall we prepare a birthday party?' Tom says, 'Okay!' Then they go to Happy Shopping Mall.

When they arrive at Happy Shopping Mall, they go to a clothes shop. Tom picks up a dress asks the shopkeeper, 'How much is this?' The shopkeeper says, 'Seventy dollars.' Tom is unhappy because he has fifty dollars only.

Luckily, Dad is in the clothes shop. He says, 'Don't worry! Let me pay for the dress.' They feel happy again and then they go home. That night, they have a party. They eat a chocolate birthday cake. Tom and Ann give the dress to their mum. It is a happy day.
