

Water Leakage

(6B Holly Lin)

Yesterday was Sunday. After lunch, my mum thought I was lazy, so she asked me to do some housework, washing the dishes. "You are so lazy. Now, you help me to wash the dishes. Quick!" Mum ordered me. After that, mum went shopping with her friends. I washed the dishes as busy as a bee. "Oh! What a boring job!" I shouted. Suddenly, the telephone rang. I held the telephone and I chatted with my friend on the telephone.

"Oh! You are Mimi. I miss you so much! How are you?" I asked her happily. While we were chatting about our daily lives, I turned on the television and took out some potato chips and cola. It was too enjoyable to chat with Mimi and I forgot about washing the dishes.

After talking with Mimi, I was very tired. I fell asleep on the sofa. When Mum came back, she heard some water sound. She came into the kitchen and she saw the water kept running out from the water tap.

Mum turned off the water tap and she shouted angrily, "Betty! Wake up! Wake up! See what you have done!" I woke up and saw the kitchen was flooded with water. "If you cannot resume everything normal, you cannot eat snacks for three months." Mum yelled and her face turned red. I failed to do so because I made all the things wet.

After this incident, I have learnt that I should be responsible and I should not be lazy.
