

What did you do last week?

(4D Chloe Tsai)

I am a helpful boy. Last week, I helped many people. Last Monday, I helped my mum to sweep the floor in the living room after breakfast. It was because she was busy.

Last Tuesday, I helped my teacher to clean the blackboard in the classroom. It was because my teacher was busy. I felt tired but I was happy. It was because I can help my teachers.

Last Wednesday, I saw an old lady with a walking stick on the MTR in the morning. I gave the seat to her. It was because I was afraid that she might fall down and get hurt.

In the end the old lady said, "You're a good boy! I will give you a candy." I said, "Thank you very much. Bye! Bye!" Helping people in need makes me happy.
