

What did you do last week?

(4D Michael Chik)

I am a helpful boy. I like to help people. Last Sunday, I helped my mum to sweep the floor in the living room because she was tired. I felt delighted.

Last Wednesday, I helped my teacher to clean the blackboard in the classroom because my teacher was busy. I felt great!

Last Friday, I saw an old lady with a walking stick on the train, so I gave the seat to her because I was afraid that she might fall down and get hurt. Then, the old lady said, "You're a helpful boy!" I said, "Thank you very much!" I thought it was joyful.

I think helping people is happy, so I like to help people.
