

What did you do last week?

I am a helpful boy. I like helping people.

Last week, I cleaned our living room after dinner.

It was because mum was tired so I decided to help her.

I felt delighted.

Last Friday, I was in the classroom. I cleaned the blackboard after lesson. I was on duty so I decided to clean the blackboard. I felt great.

Last Tuesday, I saw an old woman on the train.

She needed a seat so I let her take my seat. I felt cheerful.

I learned that we should help people that need help. It is meaningful.
